The license does not extend to nurses associated with any other sites, even those that may be part of the same healthcare organization and have access to the same wide-area network (except by special arrangement). This license does not include title upgrades (if released) free of charge. Title upgrades (if released) will be available to owners of most recent versions at reduced rates.

"Documentation" means the user, administrator and technical manuals, electronic or otherwise, pertaining to a Module and any other information relating to the Applications provided to Licensee by PDS in any manner, including, without limitation, through the Website, via e-mail, or otherwise.
